RE: Robert Dell Berry; Case No. 0-10093;

Dear Bruce:

In response to the email on the above referenced case, at the time of filing there were 2 or 3 lawsuits in which the Debtor claimed substantial fees for negotiating settlements with insurance companies who suffered property damages, and he was to recover fees for negotiating services. Amounts were unknown at the time case was reopened. The lawsuits went through Court mediations, and settled after much time. It became obvious that Mr. Berry's entitlement was questionable. Disputes were settled for a much lower value. At this point I waived my Trustee Commission and Expenses.

If you have any additional questions, please do not hesitate to contact my office.

Sincerely,

Stephen J. Zayler
